Conference 2016

Going Beyond Our Shores: Malaysia's Role in the Global Islamic Finance Industry

26 – 27 April 2016

St Giles The Gardens
Grand Hotel & Residences,
Kuala Lumpur

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Malaysian Current Law Journal is privileged to join Bar Council Malaysia in organising the 3rd Islamic Banking and Finance Law Conference 2016 ('IIBFL 2016').

Islamic Banking and Finance is very much a global phenomenon, having chalked up revenue of more than USD1.5 trillion worldwide. Indeed, in many jurisdictions, it has leapfrogged the conventional banking in terms of revenue earned or generated. The stellar growth of the industry, and the burgeoning opportunities that followed, has entailed a myriad of challenges, expectations, demands and competitions. For the stakeholders and minders of the industry, therefore, understanding, comprehending and embracing the realities and incidences of Islamic Banking and Finance is a matter of necessity.

The IIBFL 2016 seeks to showcase the dynamics and intricacies of Islamic Banking and Finance as it is being practised today. More, it will showcase first-hand the experience of market regulators, experienced industry practitioners and prominent legal and judicial scholars who will, together, take a holistic and critical examination of the relevant laws and policies, practices or malpractices, strength and weaknesses, opportunities and challenges, and indeed at the whole ecosystem that has thus far supported and sustained the industry, both in Malaysia and beyond.

This Conference should bear significantly to members of the legal, judicial, banking, finance and corporate sectors. It bears no repetition too that the knowledge and learning to be gained by the attendees is enormously practical and beneficial.

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy describes the information gathering and dissemination practices by The Malaysian Current Law Journal Sdn Bhd (hereinafter referred as "MCLJ" or "We" or "Us" or "Our").

Any changes to this privacy policy will be provided to you along with the updated version if you provide us with a correspondence address. Any such revised policy will continue to apply to all information that has previously been collected as well as information that has been stored or processed on an ongoing basis by us.

1. Information Collected and Its Usage

We may be processing personal information such as name, designation, contact details and financial information such as credit card details when you purchase our products. It is necessary for us to process the aforementioned information and if you withdraw your consent to us processing or limit our right to process the abovementioned information, we may not be able to provide you with the services requested effectively.

Any personal information that you share with us will be used for limited purposes, including to:-

- (1) process your purchase;
- (2) provide you with information of our products and also products from other members of our group of companies unless you have opted out from receiving such information;
- (3) provide, maintain, protect and improve our products, to develop new products, and to protect ourselves and customers; and
- (4) investigation of complaints, suspected suspicious transactions and research for service improvement.

We may share your personal information with:-

- (1) members of our group of companies, including holding company, subsidiary company, associate company and related company (in Malaysia and overseas) for the purpose of providing you with information of our products and also products from other members of our group of companies;
- (2) service providers under contract who help with our business operations;
- (3) third parties (including those overseas) who provide data processing services; and
- (4) any person, who is under a duty of confidentiality and who has undertaken to keep such data confidential, whom we have engaged to fulfill our obligations to you.

We reserve the right to disclose your personal information if required to do so by law, or in the good faith belief that such action is reasonably necessary to comply with legal process, respond to claims, or to protect the rights, property or safety of our company, our employees, customers, or the public. If such information is disclosed we would, if allowed by law, inform you of the disclosure.

If we are merged or acquired by another entity, personally identifiable information may be transferred to such entity as a part of the merger or acquisition.

2. Updating and Access to Your Information

It is your responsibility to ensure that the information we process is the most up-to-date information as possible. We reserve the right to decline to process requests which jeopardize the security and privacy of the personal information of others as well as requests which are impractical or not made in good faith.

Where you elect to limit our right to process the personal data, you may contact us in writing.
